

SOCIETY'S DOINGS

Dances

Mr. and Mrs. A. Schwartz entertained Thursday night with an enjoyable dancing party in the ballroom of the Hotel Paso del Norte. The dance was given complimentary to the many young women from out of town places who are visiting friends of Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz in El Paso. The ball room was attractively decorated with quantities of American flags draped about the walls and potted ferns and palms were effectively placed about the hall. An orchestra of five pieces played for the dances. In the intermissions punch was served, and later in the evening an ice course with cake was enjoyed. Maurice Schwartz and Miss Ruth Schwartz opened the dance, leading the march. Among the guests attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Lapowski, Mr. and Mrs. J. Zeiman, Mrs. Ben Swart, Mrs. J. Amstater, Misses Nordwald, Rose Baum, Rilda Jacobs, Sadie Lefkowitz, Lucille Jacobs, Caroline Block, Irma Jacobs, Jennie Stolaroff, Blanche Schwartz, Margaret Amstater, Eleanor Mathias, Hedwig Mathias, Edna Mathias, Rose Goodman, Grace Meyer, Yetta Baron, Emma Gurdorf, Jennie Lefkowitz, Lena Jacobs, Hattie Schatzky, Florence Klein, Annie Stolaroff, Lena Baumgardner, Della Moya, Rose Aronson, Rebecca Goldstein, Ethel Levy, Estella Goodman, Rose Heil, Messrs. Receptions

Mrs. R. F. Campbell and Mrs. Edgar Campbell had an informal "at home" afternoon Thursday at their home, on Mesa avenue. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon. Mrs. Campbell and her daughter will be at home on Thursday, March 26.

Parties

Mr. and Mrs. A. West, of Alta Vista, entertained on Thursday afternoon with a birthday party for her little daughter, Virginia. The table was beautifully decorated. The color scheme was pink and white. The centerpiece was a beautiful white cake with pink and white candy cups were at each place. The birthday cake was white and decorated with pink rose candle holders containing white candles. Several games were enjoyed during the afternoon, among them a peanut hunt, a prize being given the child who found the most peanuts. The children enjoying the party were: Virginia Kirkpatrick, Noble Kirkpatrick, Mary Lind Smith, Vernon, Mary and Annabelle McChesney, George Wain, Jessie Young, Virginia and Georgia West.

Mrs. Zach T. White will be the hostess this evening at a party at her home on Mesa avenue.

Dinners and Luncheons

Mrs. D. Baker Smith entertained the Thursday Luncheon club Thursday afternoon with a theater party at the performance of "Within the Law," by Margaret Illington. Following the play, luncheon was served at the Colonial tea rooms. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of jonquills, intermingled with roses and ferns. Diminutive green frogs, at each guest's place, held the place cards in their mouths. The favors were small boxes, in green shamrock shape, filled with salted almonds, and as souvenirs each guest received a bouquet of jonquills.

Women's Organizations

Mrs. James Vance is entertaining the S. S. club this afternoon at her home on West Boulevard.

Church Affairs

The monthly business and social meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Westminster Presbyterian church was held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. C. A. Rivers, on Nevada street. A business meeting was first held. Following this, Miss Annie J. Hawley and Mrs. C. A. Rivers played a piano duet. Mrs. K. C. Copenhagen sang, and Sam Kirkpatrick sang, with Miss Hawley accompanying on the piano. The evening's fun was afforded by a track meet. All the guests were separated into sides, the blue and red. The blue side won the greatest number of events, and consequently the losers, the reds, had to wash up the punch glasses as a penalty. The events opened with a one mile run, in which each contestant had to push a peanut across the table with his nose. This was the wildest grin, and also won by jump, a test of the shrillest squeal, the blue side won. The broad jump, the wildest grin, and also won by the blues. The reds won the potato race, in which a very large "spud" had to be carried across the room, balanced upon a very small spoon. The shot put, filling a small bottle with 25 bird shot, was won by the blues, who also won the shot race, picking up a given number of shot scattered about the floor and putting these in a sack. The reds won the next two events, the 100 yard dash, eating three crackers, and then whistling, and the hurdle race, moving a peanut with a toothpick across a number of pencils. In the relay race three people were on a side with one knife to a side, and the race consisted in the shortest time taken to pare three apples. This and the final event, the foot race, measuring the length of the contestants' feet, was won by the blues. During the evening Miss Florence Reed served punch.

Miss Alberta Howard entertained the Daisy club of the Calvary Houston Square Baptist church Thursday afternoon with a taffy-pull at her home, 617 Portland avenue. Mrs. A. S. Howard played a number of piano selections for the children and they entertained themselves playing games. Following the taffy pull, cake and sherbet were served, the young hostesses being assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. S. Howard, Mrs. L. J. Ouzts, and Mrs. C. V. Jackson. Some of the guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. O. J. Wade, Misses Ada, Clara, Wade, Zelma Newsom, Ruth Jackson, Genevieve Jackson, Evelyn Howard, Alice Van Eaton, Lois Currier, Margaret Marquess, Bethel Osborne and David Spencer, Albert Ouzts, Carl Gring, George Howard, Miss Feline Newsom will be the hostess of the club next Thursday afternoon at her home, 1401 Boulevard.
